I would like to comment on the Mahatma Gandhi's quotation. "Be the change that you wish to see in the world" is a famous phrase that had spread all over our world. It has a rather deep meaning. 38

In my opinion, everyone should understand its influence on our world. Therefore, the quotation explains us how to improve our world, making it cleaner and less dangerous by focusing at our own duties. Discussions about air pollution, droughts and other problems can lead to the eternity. So we need to start making our world better beginning with ourselves. Instead of being rude to people around us, we must start helping them and be kinder. Moreover, if we stop being careless to the environment, it will be cleaner. We need to understand that every change in the world comes with the change in our mind. 42 29

To sum up, our efforts to get a good education, proper manners can lead to changes of our world. Human beings need to consider the repercussions of their actions, trying to establish morally suitable habits. Every good ~~at~~ deal we do is a huge step to world's change. That's all I wanted to tell you about the quotation of Mahatma Gandhi. 60
